WELCOME

HI, MY NAME IS EDNA. I AM AN EXTENSIVELY PUBLISHED AWARD WINNING PHOTOGRAPHER, BUT IF YOU ARE READING THIS YOU PROBABLY ALREADY KNOW THAT. WHAT YOU MAY NOT KNOW IS THAT I HAVE STRUGGLED WITH MY SELF IMAGE MY ENTIRE LIFE, ACTUALLY THE REASON THAT I EVEN GOT INTO PHOTOGRAPHY WAS TO MAKE WOMEN FEEL BEAUTIFUL. IF I COULD NOT FEEL BEAUTIFUL MYSELF, THEN I WOULD MAKE IT MY LIFE'S GOAL TO MAKE OTHERS FEEL GORGEOUS.

ANYWAYS, LET ME TELL YOU HOW LONG IT TOOK ME TO SAY, "I AM BEAUTIFUL." IT TOOK YEARS TO BE AT PEACE WITH MY SELF-IMAGE. I HAVE SINCE REALIZED HOW MUCH I LOVE WHAT MY BODY IS CAPABLE OF; THE REAL BEAUTY LIES BENEATH ANY SELF-PERCEIVED FLAW., I BOTTLED UP MY SELF-LOVE JOURNEY, AND I WANT TO SHARE IT WITH EVERYONE. I UNDERSTAND THE PAIN OF NOT FEELING COMFORTABLE IN YOUR OWN SKIN. BUT LET ME TELL YOU HOW AWESOME IT FEELS ONCE YOU FIND SELF-ACCEPTANCE AND FREEDOM.

A NEWLY FOUND FREEDOM AND PEACE BRINGS SUCH REFRESHMENT TO OUR EVERYDAY LIFE. I WANT EVERY WOMAN TO FEEL THAT LIBERATION FROM SELF-DOUBT. LET ME BE YOUR GUIDE TO YOUR NEW BEGINNING..

LOOK GOOD, FEEL GOOD

Ever heard the phrase, "Strive for beauty that can be felt, not just seen"?

I want to emphasize to you what a little R&R will do for your images and soul. Beauty begins the moment you decide to be yourself.

First off, pampering yourself loosens you up and gets rid of anxiety. Who doesn't like feeling like royalty, anyways? When you feel beautiful, it will show through your images in the end.

I recommend getting your hair, make-up and mani pedi done. Get your nails done the day before and have your hair and make-up done before your shoot. Be sure to schedule plenty of time in between in case of traffic.

Make sure to wear a button up or zip up shirt when having your hair and makeup done. You don't want to mess up any of the hard work, especially onto your lingerie!

Inner beauty is great, but a little mascara never hurt anyone.

Having fresh foundation will help smooth your skin from blemishes or discoloration. Even some false lashes will add a "WOW" factor to you! We recommend curls for our clients. This helps with providing classy photos, or you can get messy in them to give your images a bit of sass! The camera will remove 50% of your make up so although it may feel strange go a little heavy.

You are gonna have fun I promise so just relax and let go.

NOW OFFERING: BOUDOIR'S COUPLE SESSION

Are you ready to connect deeper with your partner?

When we mention a couple's boudoir session, most people go running for the hills. But before you dismiss this idea, hear me out. This is one of the most intimate and raw moments you will ever experience together.

This is a bonding experience. Even before I start clicking the shutter on my camera, you two will have a chance to dress up (or dress down) and let loose. This breaks down walls between you both. The results are extraordinary and bring you closer to your significant other.

If you are more shy we can shoot indoors or at the LA Studios if you don't care about showing public displays of affection we can shoot outdoors! How far we go is completely up to you!

Celebrate each other. Your love has stood the test of time and you deserve this. Love can be hard and challenging, but together, it is so worth it. When I shoot these sessions, I can't even begin to tell you how amazing it is to see reconnection and the sparks in their eyes light up. With these memories, you will be able to look back and cherish them for a lifetime. Forever and always.

Now that I convinced you, tell your partner you are needing a... date night.

WILL MY BOUDOIR IMAGES BE POSTED ONLINE?

A common question I'm asked about my boudoir photography is whether a client's images are going to end up on my website or on social media. That makes sense because I have images of other clients on these outlets, but the only images you're seeing are from women who decided they were 100% OK with those images being shared. None of my clients are obligated to have their images posted.

When you have a boudoir session with me, one of the first things we'll discuss is your privacy. Some women prefer to have zero images shared anywhere. Some are OK with me posting to a private and secure group online for other clients to see, and some don't mind having their images shown on my Instagram, Facebook, Pinterest, or Website.

If you'd like to share any images from your boudoir session, I'll run the image(s) by you first and let you know when they're being posted. You also reserve the right to have the images removed at any time. If you prefer to keep everything private, that's 100% OK and an option that many of my clients choose. To help ensure peace of mind, do note that I have taken extra protective measures in my home and on my computer to ensure your images are steel-trap safe.

Boudoir Checklist

Gearing up for a boudoir session? Girl, I've got you covered! I know you've already got your outfit planned and your makeup inspiration look pulled, but have you checked off these boxes?

Come Up with an Empowering Mantra: Having the nervous jitters before your shoot is completely normal, but I've found that one of the best ways to pump yourself up is to repeat an affirmative mantra or positive phrase! Maybe it's "I DESERVE THIS!" or "I am grateful for all that I am," or "May I be kind to myself today and always."

Make Yourself a Fun Playlist: Great music can really set you up for a killer shoot. Choose 20 to 30 of your favorite songs (I recommend mostly upbeat pieces to keep energy up) and be ready to press play the day of your shoot. No playlist? No sweat. I've got a few to choose from!

Model the Heck Out of Your Outfit: Reserve 30 to 60 minutes sometime between now and your boudoir session to put on your outfits. The more comfortable you are in the outfits, the more comfortable you'll be on the day of the shoot! Also, tell yourself how awesome you look in each one and call out your favorite physical feature in each outfit.

Write Down Why You're Doing This: Take a good 15 to 20 minutes to write down the reasons why you decided to do a boudoir shoot. Maybe it's to embrace your body or you want to give a milestone gift to your partner. Whatever the reason, this session is a celebration of those reasons, and we're going to have a heck of a time.

SHOULD YOU PURCHASE A BOUDOIR BOOK OR ALBUM?

Having a boudoir session is a really big deal. If you're like many of my other clients, I know that you probably toyed with the idea of having a session for some time, and that making the decision to go for it caused a few butterflies. I also know that you invest money, time, emotion, and energy into the process from beginning to end.

For some, simply experiencing the session itself and seeing those digital stills is enough, but others crave a tangible takeaway. Something they can hold in their hands or gift to another. That's where boudoir books and albums come into play.

A boudoir book or album gives you or your partner the opportunity to thumb through all your images — the ones you worked up courage to pose for, and that make you feel incredible every time you look at them — whenever you please. Physical albums also give you an opportunity to include some of the more risqué or exposed images — the ones you might not want to keep on your computer or online for privacy reasons.

Our boudoir books and albums aren't just a hodgepodge of images. They're carefully and thoughtfully designed to create a story using your favorite images from the session. We can often include text to personalize each, and we use the highest quality paper, cover, and binding for an exquisite finish.

WHY I CHOSE TO EMPOWER WOMEN VIA BOUDOIR PHOTOGRAPHY

Some people become doctors, teachers, or politicians, some throw themselves into the world of finance or sales, and some run full steam into the sciences. These practical jobs have their place on this Earth and I'm grateful to every single person who chooses any of the aforementioned career paths (and all the ones I didn't name). I'll be the first to admit that boudoir photography isn't exactly "practical," and that it might even be misunderstood by some. But there's one thing I know from personal experience doing this work: it changes lives.

It's no secret that women, specifically, face a brutal and judgmental world. One filled with marketing images of airbrushed "perfection," and marketing ploys to become "better" through diet, supplements, gym memberships, and more. Baring all in front of the camera — literally — may seem like a way to highlight every self-perceived flaw that women are taught to believe about themselves, but I'm here to tell you that a boudoir session has the complete opposite effect for my clients.

Boudoir sessions empower women. They give them space to unleash their curves, to forget about all the marketing noise, to celebrate their bodies in a way they've never done before. I may not have a "practical" job that saves literal lives or educates our children, but just like I value those careers I think — no, I know — there's value in what I do as a boudoir photographer, too. The proof? Every woman who steps in front of my camera and walks away feeling more sure of herself and more beautiful than ever before.

Girl! You know you're the BEST!

FOUR TIPS TO ROCK YOUR BOUDOIR SHOOT

So you decided to dive into the deep end.
Here are a few pointers to help you along the way:

- 1 Drink up! Guzzle plenty of water before your session. Being hydrated keeps dry skin at bay, and helps fine lines appear plumper and smoother.
- 2 If you bring personal lingerie, make sure it is comfortable. You do not want it to dig into your skin or make unnecessary bulges!
- 3 Treat yourself before your photoshoot to a mani/pedi. Pampering yourself is the perfect way to relax and destress.
- 4 Go to bed early and get rest. You will want to come feeling energized without dark under-eyes!

Your shoot is all done, you are proud of your photos, and you want to show your partner. How exactly do you do that, though? Here are five great ideas that just might work for you:

- 1 Take your digital files and email them to your husband or wife while they are at work. Nothing brightens up someone's day like a boudoir photo. You can string them out over a few days or even months. One last piece of advice: in the subject line, make sure that you tell them to open your email in private!
- 2 Put them in an album. Wrap up this album and let them open this gift on a special occasion. After your shoot, we can pick out your favorite photos, and I can have your collection made into an album for you.
- 3 Put them on the mirror in the morning. Simply hang a photo on the mirror before your significant other wakes up in the morning. I honestly can't think of a better way to start the day.
- 4 This isn't for the faint of heart. Take your 12 favorite shots and have them turned into a calendar. Hang it up and let them enjoy a new photo every month for the next year. I had a client a few months back who had one of her favorite shots printed onto a coffee mug.
- 5 A scavenger hunt! Don't let the secret out. Place your photos in the fridge, lunchbox, or any other commonly used place. Imagine your partner's surprised look when they find a sultry picture of you unexpectedly. Be creative with this one!

JOIN MY VIP BOUDOIR CLUB

I get a number of questions about my VIP Boudoir club, so I thought I'd take a quick second to give you the run down. My VIP Boudoir club is simply a private closed group (a "club" if you will) that consists of current, past, and future boudoir clients. It's a safe space for you to ask questions and share inspirational images or stories, to collaborate and bond with other women who are just like you.

When permission is granted, I'll post a handful of images from my sessions for others to see in this VIP group. I'll also use this group to post upcoming session ideas dates, specials, and to get feedback for my studio regarding locations, props, new products, and even editing styles.

My VIP Boudoir club is free — I only ask that you bring your best attitude to lean into the atmosphere of lifting other women up and having a great time

REFERRAL PROGRAM

Did you know I have a referral program for boudoir sessions? When you refer a friend, and they schedule with us, you will receive a free 8x10 from a previous or upcoming session...Yes, you read that right! Take this as my way of saying thank you.

BOUDOIR FAQ

I'M REALLY NERVOUS. IS THAT NORMAL?

It is definitely normal to be nervous for your boudoir session, so don't worry. Most of our clients are nervous until the session has gone on for a few minutes. After it starts, you'll begin to loosen up.

HOW DO I KNOW HOW TO POSE?

Don't worry about posing. I've totally got you covered in that department. I know all the tricks to create the most flattering angles for you, no matter what shape or size you are.

DO YOUR PACKAGES INCLUDE HAIR AND MAKEUP?

They do not but I can refer you to amazing hair and make up artists

I WANT SHARE THESE PICTURES WITH MY PARTNER, BUT I DON'T WANT LOOSE PRINTS FLOATING AROUND. ANY IDEAS FOR THE BEST GIFT?

This is a very common concern and I totally understand. I recommend placing an order for a book or album to keep images secure.

WHAT SHOULD I BRING TO MY BOUDOIR SESSION?

I suggest two to three different outfits and any props you may want to incorporate. You can do one nighty, one bra and undies, one casual sexy outfit and one semi nude/nude .

CAN I BRING A FRIEND?

Yes, you can bring a friend if you think it will help you relax. However, sometimes an extra set of eyes has the opposite effect, even if it is a friend. They are more than welcome to come, but if they are making you uncomfortable, they may have to wait out in the lobby.

WILL MY SESSION BE WITH A MALE OR FEMALE PHOTOGRAPHER?

It's me just me and I'm a girl!

DO YOU DO TOUCHUPS?

I am a photoshop Guru so you have nothing to worry about I do full body retouching and skin smoothing.. you images will be flawless!

I'M NOT A MODEL – ARE BOUDOIR PHOTOS STILL FLATTERING EVEN IF MY BODY ISN'T PERFECT?

Absolutely! Nobody is perfect and every woman is sexy. If you have any specific concerns, contact me and we can talk about it!

DO YOU DO OUTDOOR BOUDOIR SESSIONS?

Check my locations on my website under the locations tab. Some locations are more discreet than others contact me and we can chat about it.
